

CAPITAL TEACHERS WANT TO ORGANIZE

Poll Shows, However, That They Are Opposed to Any Kind of Union.

Washington school teachers favor an organization of some kind, though they are overwhelmingly opposed to a labor union.

This was the result of a poll of more than 1,700 teachers, just completed, during which replies were received from 700. The task of getting opinions from teachers was undertaken by a volunteer committee representing all fields of school work.

The results were announced at a meeting of the committee at the James O. Wilson school yesterday afternoon, and a general meeting of teachers will be called in February to discuss further plans for the organization.

TELLS POLICE HOW HE KILLED FRIEND

Man Held as Forger Describes Fight With Man From His Birthplace.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 12.—"I killed Joe Reiser, of St. Paul, at Saleville, Mont., on December 23, and want to make a clean breast of the matter."

Joe Reiser, formerly of St. Paul, was the speaker. He was in a cell in the county jail, where he had been placed following his arrest on a charge of forgery.

Soon after his arrest he sent for Sheriff Brown, told him he never had been in jail before, that his conscience troubled him, and that he wanted to clear up the matter.

"I think who came from St. Paul," said Reiser, "and I were 'backing it' while looking for work, and had no trouble until the night of the fight."

"The weather was cold and during the night I accused me of taking all the best clothing from the fight, and he was a liar and the fight began."

"I shot at me, but missed, and I jumped for him. He seized an axe and hit me once, cutting one of my arms. I took the axe from him and hit him on the head. He fell and I fled."

Reiser and Pink were reared in the same town in Hungary and came to this country together. Pink was unmarried, while Reiser has a wife and two children.

Grand Army Posts
Install New Officers

Kit Carson Post, G. A. R., installed its new officers last night in G. A. R. Hall. They are John McIntyre, post commander; Henry C. Dunham, senior vice commander; John T. Ryan, junior vice commander; A. B. Bennett, quartermaster; H. B. Jackson, surgeon; E. D. Gaffney, chaplain; W. T. Kelly, officer of the day; J. F. Collins, officer of the guard; John J. Edson, A. J. Gunning, and George H. Slaybaugh, trustees; John Middleton, patriotic instructor; G. M. Huston, representative on department relief committee; and Robert J. Armour, representative on department memorial committee.

Fought Like a Woman And Thus Reveals Self

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 13.—After having maintained a man for the last twelve years, "Freddie," thirty, employed in a local restaurant, became involved in a fight with a man and the feminine tactics "she" adopted in the scrap led to the discovery that "she" is a woman.

Both were arrested and sent to the General Hospital, where the police became suspicious of "Freddie's" actions. The police theory was borne out when Dr. G. W. Shawker, receiving physician, rushed out of the rooming ward, exclaiming "He is a woman."

So complete was the deception that even court officials failed to recognize her sex when she was a principal witness for the defense in a recent murder trial here.

Advertising Got Her
"Right Kind of Husband"

PARIS, Ill., Jan. 12.—Miss Anna Franklin, twenty years old and pretty, who lives with her sister-in-law in St. Louis, was married here to Frank Porot, a farmer near Grand Rapids, Mich. Neither the bride nor bridegroom had seen each other before.

Porot met Miss Franklin here at the railway station, in response to an advertisement for a "right kind of husband" inserted in a newspaper by Miss Franklin. It was prearranged that Porot should wear a small white star in his coat lapel and Miss Franklin was to wear a white ribbon.
